MEDICINAL. AT HALF MAST.

Sometimes we are greeted in the morning by flags at half-mast for some prominent official who yesterday was apparently in perfect health. When we inquire the ailment by which he was stricken it is not uncommon to be told "acute indigestion" or "stomach trouble."

It is time people learned that indigestion or any form of "stomach trouble" is not a thing to trifle with. The result may not be fatal, but there can be no condition of diseased stomach which does not carry with it physical loss and weakness. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures indigestion and other forms of disease affecting the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

"Thanks to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mr. Charles H. German, of Lehigh, Pa. "It is the only medicine that has done me any good. I tried everything I could think of to cure indigestion, and found I was only throwing away money. Then I heard of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and tried a bottle of it, and to my joy found it was doing me good. I used six bottles of it, and am now cured. It is the best medicine on earth."

This grand remedy does its work in a thorough manner; it gives the health that is all health; the strength that is solid, substantial and lasting; not flabby fat, not false stimulus, but genuine, complete, renewed vitality and life force.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and its consequences.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

WAR IN THE EAST.

A dispatch from Tokio says that the first shots of the war on land were exchanged Sunday at Ping-Yang, midway between Seoul and the Yalu river. A detachment of Russian mounted scouts appeared in the morning to the northward of the town. The Japanese outposts opened fire from a range of 1,700 metres and the Russians retired.

The telegram reporting the incident fails to mention any casualties. It is presumed there were none, on account of the small number of men engaged and the distance separating the opposing armies.

It is estimated that 60,000 Japanese troops have landed at Chemulpo. The transports now are not escorted by war vessels.

It is reported at Tokio that there will be a small engagement soon somewhere in northern Korea where the Russians are scouting over an extended area, close to the Japanese positions, but a general engagement is not expected to occur for some time. The Russian force south of the Yalu river is inconsiderable, its greatest strength seeming to be in the vicinity of Wiju. North of the Yalu the Russian army is constantly increasing in numbers and is being mobilized, but the chances of its assuming the offensive are slight.

The Japanese are constantly strengthening their position and increasing their forces in Korea.

The Japanese sailors who manned the merchant vessels which were sunk at Port Arthur, on landing at Tokio, shaved their heads as a mark of the disgrace they felt at the failure of the project. The crew of the Jinsen Maru wrote their names on the foremast flag which remained above water when the ship went down.

Direct confirmation of the report from Hakodate that Vladivostok is blockaded by Japanese cannot be obtained at St. Petersburg, but it is considered not improbable. During the Japanese landing operations in Korea the Russian warships to the north were a constant menace, and blockading them would be the most effective means of securing non-interference. Furthermore, it is worthy of note that for more than one week no word has been allowed to come from Vladivostok, and this in itself seems strong presumptive evidence that important events are transpiring.

A dispatch to the London Daily Telegraph from Yin Kow, dated, February 29, says: "Fifteen Japanese warships furiously bombarded Port Arthur from 10 until 12 o'clock this morning. The Russian cruisers Novik, Askold and Bayan, accompanied by four torpedo boats, steamed out to meet the attack. They were, however, forced to retire. The Askold was in a sinking condition. The Novik was badly damaged, and a torpedo boat was sunk. The Russian battleship Retvizan was again damaged. The Japanese withdrew in good order."

DINING NEGROES.

As stated in the Gazette, during consideration of the District of Columbia appropriation bill in the House yesterday, Mr. Scott made the declaration that a negro had dined at the White House with President Cleveland during the latter's first administration. The statement was prompted by a reference by Mr. Gilbert to the dining of Booker Washington at the White House.

Referring to the declaration of a republican platform for "freedom and equality," Mr. Gilbert mentioned the retention of Mrs. Cox as postmaster at Indianola, Miss., and to the appointment of Crum as collector at Charleston, S. C., and he made reference to the dining of Booker Washington at the White House, undertaking to describe the seating of the President's family at the table.

Mr. Scott asked Mr. Gilbert if he would criticize a democratic president if he should have a negro dine with him as severely as he criticized President Roosevelt.

"An impossible assumption," declared Mr. Gilbert.

Mr. Scott asked him if he did not know that a negro dined at the White House during President Cleveland's first administration, to which Mr. Gilbert replied that the democrats were not particularly claiming Mr. Cleveland, and that he was not a first-class democrat.

Mr. Scott then said that C. H. J. Taylor, a negro from Kansas, was brought to Washington and was taken to the White House, when Mr. Cleveland invited him to dine with him, which invitation, he said, was accepted.

Mr. Scott drew a contrast between Washington and Taylor, saying the former was a man of recognized ability, and had been the guest of distinguished people at home and abroad, including Queen Victoria, and declared that Taylor had nothing to commend him save

MRS. HELENA BLAV, Young Milwaukee Society Woman.

TWENTY thousand cured women have written to tell how Wine of Cardui bestows the blessing of health on every woman who takes it, rich and poor alike. Mrs. Helena Blav, No. 18 South Street, Milwaukee, Wis., is one of the young women whom Wine of Cardui has rescued from a life of suffering. She writes:

The woman who has suffered from female weakness should do anything within reason to "cure" her health. Wine of Cardui is the medicine that appeals to reasonable women—women who hold operations and cutting in horror—women who know that Nature is the best physician. Wine of Cardui gives women back their health by giving Nature a chance to build up the wasted and diseased tissue. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow and Nature, when relieved of the drains or of the poisons in the system, makes the functional organs strong and healthy again.

"Wine of Cardui is certainly 'worth out' women's best friend and I am pleased to give my experience with it. A few months ago I caught a severe cold, having been out in inclement weather, which settled all over me, particularly in the abdomen. I was in almost constant pain. I consulted a physician and took his medicine for a month and without any relief. I then decided I would try your medicine and it was a lucky day for me when I did so. I noticed a change in a few days and felt encouraged to continue taking Wine of Cardui, and my patience was rewarded, for in two weeks my pains had left me and I felt like a new woman."

WINE of CARDUI

the claim that he carried the democratic negro vote in his pocket. He further said that Taylor had been appointed to a position in Washington. "And by Cleveland," suggested a voice on the republican side.

A discussion of the question of reciprocity by Mr. Dalzell and Mr. Williams, the minority leader, consumed the greater portion of the day. Another feature of the day was the declaration by Mr. Lovering (Mass.) that while the republican party was talking about "standing pat," thousands of dollars were being lost to manufacturers, and that "our boasted prosperity is fast coming to an end," because of the failure of the party to enlarge the drawback system and give the new markets which, he declared, were now demanded. Mr. Lovering was loudly applauded on the minority side when he took issue with his party.

Gift to the University.

John R. Mott, general secretary of the World's Student Federation, has announced that Mrs. William E. Dodge, widow of the philanthropist who first suggested the intercollegiate movement among Christian students, had agreed to give to the University of Virginia a Y. M. C. A. building to cost $40,000, provided an endowment and maintenance fund of $20,000 should be raised by the university's friends. The offer was accepted and the campaign for $20,000 begun at once.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS have been opened, and we start next week upon the 5th hundred, having just received 100 additional banks. Call at the office and get one, and begin a Savings Account at once. It is NOT NECESSARY to take one of the little Banks, as you can simply make $1.00 deposit, receive a pass book, and deposit your saving just as it suits you. Mr. Borg, the efficient manager of Messrs. Burns & Co., of New York, the manufacturer of the auxiliary banks, has so well canvassed the town that a great many persons are calling at the office to open accounts who were not ready when he was working the town. As we do not put out more than 500 in all, you had better call and get one now. Bring $1.00. That opens the account, and is withdrawable with other deposits, as the bank costs you nothing.
